

Hydrant Boost Test System

Aline's innovative boost testing system is a leap forward in the area of the AS2941 required boost testing of a buildings fire systems. Replacing the traditional method of using a pump truck, this unique product can be trailer or ute mounted and is easy to set up and begin testing.

Features

- Portable - easy to move from site to site
- Trailer or ute mountable
- High performance pumpset
- Small high head pump also included for line pressurisation
- Multiple outlet/inlet connection options and fitting types
- Easily transported via forklift
- Solar panel array included for battery charging on the go

Specifications

- Available with 34-89kW range of Diesel Engines
- Flow ranges from 3l/s to 30l/s
- Output pressure from 500-2000kPa
- Electric start with remote start options
- Dedicated control panel with variable speed drive options available

